95% of READS summer program participants increased their reading scores, more than double the rate of peers who didn’t attend and in stark contrast to typical reading score drops following summer break.

91% of Pre-K students were identified as “kindergarten ready” by the time they graduated from the program.

261 Erie kids learned about super foods and the benefits of physical activity.

1 new bicultural, bilingual therapist was hired to support a growing number of Ukrainian families in childcare.

1693 people attended CHA workshops.

382 DACA applications, renewal and initial, were submitted.

353 students were enrolled in restorative practice principles class.

1 new “bridge” classroom was opened to support students ages 5-7 as they transition out of preschool and into elementary school.

100% of our high school seniors were enrolled in post-secondary programs.

1670 individuals attended immigration legal consultations and over 1200 received legal representation.

49 Community Navigators were equipped to lead 180 Know Your Rights trainings.

153 participants engaged in advocacy issues relevant to them and their community.

11200 individuals attended immigration legal consultations and over 1200 received legal representation.

Erie served people from over 54 different countries.

1693 people attended immigration legal consultations and over 1200 received legal representation.

Erie House served people from over 54 different countries.

11200 individuals attended immigration legal consultations and over 1200 received legal representation.

Erie by the Numbers